RE: Speaking Invitation
 Criminal Justice Alumni Association
 Northeastern University
 Boston, Massachusetts
 7 May 1988

President of the Criminal Justice Alumni Association at Northeastern University, Roland D. Hughes, has invited you to address the Association's 1988 Annual Dinner Meeting on Saturday, 7 May in Boston. The suggested format is 20 minutes of remarks on a topic of your choice followed by 10 minutes of questions and answers. You could expect an audience of 75-100 criminal justice and law enforcement graduates. Media coverage is not expected.

Previous speakers have been US Marshall James B. Roche, Director of the Secret Service John Simpson, and former Attorney General of Massachusetts Francis X. Bellotti.

Since your spring schedule is already heavily booked, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, I have attached a letter of regret for your signature.

RE: Speaking Engagement May 7, 1987

Dear Justice Webster:

The College of the Criminal Justice Alumni Association at Northeastern University is in the process of planning its 1988 Annual Dinner Meeting. Each year a program committee seeks prominent leaders who have demonstrated excellence and professionalism in our field. As President of this Association, I would like to extend an invitation to you to be our next speaker.

Our organization is comprised of criminal justice and law enforcement graduates who have come together to establish an active, professional organization. Our Association works to further and maintain high standards of education and professionalism in our field, as well as increased career opportunities and assists in developing our college programs. As a direct result of our efforts, the working relationship among the various facets of the criminal justice system has improved.

Last year, we were honored to have as our guest speaker, U.S. Marshall James B. Roche, prior to that, John Simpson, Director of Secret Service and Francis X. Bellotti, Former Attorney General of Massachusetts. All were warmly received by hundreds of alumni members who were in attendance.
